B-2 1. The improvised airfield south of Kreuzbruch (N 53/Z 88) was not occupied on 24 April 1950. The landing field, a dry meadow, was serviceable. Local residents said that the cantonment buildings west of the Kreuzbruch railroad station were occupied by Soviet troops prior to October 1949 but are now occupied by settlers. There were no buildings, dumps or railroad spur tracks at the field.

F-2 2. The field was not occupied on 14 May 1950. The cantonment at the field was vacant. There were no concrete runways or taxiways on the landing field which was partially covered with low bushes. No indications of an intended reoccupation or reconstruction of the field were observed. *

* [REDACTED] Comment. Both [REDACTED] agree that the field was not occupied by an air unit. According to previous information the field is occasionally used by Soviet Air Force units during the summer months as a training field.
